

As a pastors' kid growing up in church I knew a lot about the bible. I however didn't understand the bible. I looked at it as a rule book to be followed and a guide book for like. It is certainly those things but more than that it is a story of a God who loves me because he loves me. I never caught that growing up.

1. That Gospel is good news - The good news is we have sinned and are separated from God. But God sent his only Son to die for us and live for us. To restore us to himself. We can earn our way back. Jesus restores us.

2. The Gospel reminds me I need God's help - The gospel tells me that we all have the same thing in common. We all need God's help. None of us is good enough to make it to God on our own and none of us are so far away that God's love can't reach us.

3. The Gospel tells me the best is yet to come - The hope we have because of the gospel because of Jesus, our bad things turn out for good, our good things can not be lost and the best is yet to come.
